CELEBRATING 60 YEARS OF INDIA - JAPAN DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS

'Noh' - Traditional Japanese Musical Play by Grand Master of Kanze School, Japan at Bangalore & Violin Recital by Ambi Subramaniam

Venue: RajBhavan on Monday, 27th August 2012, 6:30 PM

A group of 29 performers led by Mr. Kiyokazu Kanze, the 26th Grand Master of the Kanze School, will perform Noh and Kyogen plays.

Noh has been highly acclaimed around the world for their great artistic value, and in 2001, UNESCO added to its Intangible Cultural Heritage list as a Masterpiece of Oral and Intangible Heritage of Humanity.

This is considered as "A historical commemoration performance between India-Japan" collaborating with The Embassy of Japan in India, Consulate of Japan in Bangalore, The Chancellor-Bangalore University Organised by Indo Japanese Chamber of commerce and Industry- Karnataka (IJCCI -K) with Japanese Chamber of commerce and Industries-Bangalore(JCCI -B) and Bangalore Japanese Association(BJA).

We, IJCCI take great pleasure to be a part of this celebration & it is our delight to introduce this unique art to Bangalore.

Noh will be followed by the Violin Recital from Ambi Subramaniam, a young highly talented artist, son of world renowned violin maestro Dr.L. Subramaniam.
